

Bible, Culture and Contemporary Leadership

AIM:

To enable the learner to develop critical understanding and application skills in concepts, principles and practices of leadership in biblical and cultural perspectives.

OBJECTIVES:

By the end of module the learner should be able to demonstrate:

1. Understanding of key concepts of biblical and cultural patterns of leadership
2. Understanding of the major models of leadership styles in historical perspectives.
3. Skills in the application of sound biblical principles to the critical and common issues of contemporary leadership.
4. Ability to critically assess the underlying values of the major models and styles of leadership.
5. Ability to interface biblical principles with cultural and contemporary principles and practices of leadership.
6. Skills in the critical analysis of the different models and styles of leadership and personal skills in formulating holistic and coherent principles of leadership to address specific (defined) situations.