

RESEARCH METHODS & WRITING- equips the learner with skills in research methods, critical thinking, information technology, personal learning and study styles and effective research writing. Additionally, there will be an overview of ALMA's courses and expectations.