

Research Methods and Writing

AIM:

By the end of this course the student will be prepared to do masters level course work by developing research and writing skill, knowledge of information technology and how they apply to individual learning styles in a part-time, learner centred course.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Understand the value of life-long learner centred leadership development in the 21st century.
2. Understand individual learning style and how to maximize them to achieve ones learning goals.
3. Develop skills in master's level research and writing.
4. Know how to utilize library resources to do research.
5. Develop skills in using the Internet to do research.
6. Develop skills in document preparation using computer word processing
7. Develop ability to choose and focus a research topic.